DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "other wiring board" of claim 28 and the "two or more semiconductor chips" of claim 29 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: There is no support in the disclosure for the limitations of amended claim 32 and the underlined limitations of new claim 103 (which should not be underlined since it is a new claim).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 103 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent Pub. No. 2004/0061240 to Seko.

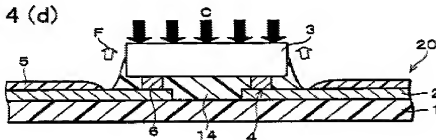

Regarding claim 103, Seko discloses A semiconductor device, comprising:
a solid state device 1 having a surface (top) and an external connection surface (bottom) which is a surface on a side opposite the surface (top),
a semiconductor chip 3 having a functional surface (bottom), a connecting member 6 provided between the surface (top) of the solid state device 1 and the functional surface (bottom) of the semiconductor chip 3, the connecting member 6 extending over a distance between the surface (top) of the solid state device 1 and the functional surface (bottom) of the semiconductor chip 3 and having a constant width, an insulating film 5 provided on the surface (top) of the solid state device 1, the insulating film 5 having an opening (unlabeled) greater in size than the semiconductor chip 3, and a sealing layer 14 that completely seals the opening (unlabeled) and a space between (unlabeled) the solid state device 1 and the semiconductor chip 3, wherein the sealing layer 14 does not cover an upper surface of the insulating film 5 and the sealing layer 14 covers a side face (unlabeled) of the semiconductor chip 3 up to a middle portion of the side face with respect to a thickness direction of the semiconductor chip 3.

FIG. 4 (d)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 16-23 25-37 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the cited prior art discloses or teaches a semiconductor device capable of preventing a void from occurring in a sealing layer wherein a lateral distance between an outer periphery of the semiconductor chip and an edge of an opening of an insulating film is 0.1 mm or more.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 01/05/12 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that the features of new claim 103 are not taught by any of the art of record. In response, since claim 103 does not contain the allowable subject matter of former claim 24, it is not allowable.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The other cited prior art on PTO-892 teaches a sealing layer not formed on an insulating film and provided to partially cover a semiconductor action chip.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
